

Become a Friend of Jamyang Bath

Help to cultivate wisdom and compassion in Bath and the West

"Let us reflect on what is truly of value in life, what gives meaning to our lives, and set our priorities on the basis of that." His Holiness Dalai Lama

We are aiming to rent a space in central Bath which is accessible to all, attractive, spacious and flexible, while still being affordable, where we can offer a greater range of teachings and events more easily. We want to offer more classes of different types and at different times of the day, and for people to be able to drop into a quiet and welcoming space where they can access our library.

Will you help by becoming a Friend?

Friends make the commitment of a regular donation to enable the group to meet daily running costs and plan ahead for future growth. Please give whatever you can afford, but suggest at least £15 per month (or annual equivalent) to help us on our way.

A Friend is someone who...

- values bringing respected teachers to Bath
- wishes to help establish an oasis of peace and compassion in the heart of the city
- feels part of the Jamyang Bath community
- wants to demonstrate their commitment in a practical way

In return we can offer ...

- the satisfaction of knowing that you are adding something positive to the world
- subscription to Mandala magazine, a twice-yearly Tibetan Buddhism journal, capturing the life and times of the FPMT
- full use of our lending library
- our regular Newsletter and updates on events

You can either:

- start a regular monthly standing order online. Please let us know by email admin@jamyangbath.org.uk —including your postal address for the Mandala magazine (You can also make a one-off donation if you wish, using the bank details below)
